

Announcing Important Medicaid Information Forums for Consumers of Mental Health Services and Case Managers Who Assist Them

The Medicaid Mental Health Coalition, in sponsorship with the Division of Mental Health and Addiction Services (DMHAS) and Division of Medical Assistance and Health Services (DMAHS), is hosting free sessions to help consumers of mental health services and case managers who assist them learn about Medicaid medication changes. Speakers will include Lynn Kovich, M.Ed., Assistant Commissioner of the DMHAS, and Eugene Azoia, RPh, Pharmacist, Medicaid. Robert Eilers, MD, Medical Director of DMHAS, will be available for questions.

The Medicaid Mental Health Coalition consists of the Mental Health Association in NJ (MHANJ), Collaborative Support Programs in NJ (CSPNJ), Coalition of Mental Health Consumer Organizations (COMHCO), Disability Rights of New Jersey (DRNJ) and the NJ Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association (NJPRA).

Understanding Medicaid Benefit Changes for Mental Health Medications

Topics will include:

- How and when the changes will effect you
- How to identify potential problems
- How and where to get advice and support

There will be time for questions and answers.

We need to hear from you!
