

You Are Invited LET'S DO IT AGAIN

to our 4th dialogue with NJ BIPOC Peers
(Black, Indigenous and People of Color)

PLEASE JOIN ME IN CREATING A SAFE SPACE FOR BIPOC PEERS to share experiences, affirm and validate ourselves and each other!

BIPOC Peers can have a voice in determining the direction of our field from our perspectives as peers and as members of BIPOC communities. We can contribute to making the decisions concerning training and education best practices, policy development and providing culturally informed support that builds on mutuality, empathy, and trust.

During this open dialogue, we will discuss issues such as:

- How does being a BIPOC Peer inform your practice?
- What challenges have you encountered as a BIPOC Peer?
- How can BIPOC Peer Specialists promote and support each other?
